

Victory Managed School in Chicago Tops List in Academics

Chicago, IL – The Illinois State Board of Education released achievement data in December of 2011 that show Chicago International Charter School (CICS)-Irving Park, a school managed by Victory Education Partners, had the highest percentage of students meeting or exceeding state standards among all charter schools in the City of Chicago. CICS-Irving Park outscored 93% of Chicago schools on Composite ISAT performance, including every other charter school. The school had a Composite Score of 92%, including 97% of students meeting or exceeding state standards in Math.

In the case of CICS/Irving Park, Victory Education Partners has authority for hiring the school leader and substantially sets the school's culture. Further, VEP worked with Chicago International Charter School to plan the curriculum for Irving Park since the school's inception. This makes it unique among all of the schools with which Victory partners.

Victory Education Partners' mission is to help communities create great schools. We work with partner schools in Chicago, New York, Newark, Philadelphia and elsewhere.
